We would like to acknowledge the Anishinaabeg, Haudenosaunee and Mississaugas of the New Credit, the Haudenosaunee, the Anishinaabe, and the Huron-Wendat, who are the original owners and custodians of the land on which we stand. (From email)

The sacred land on which the University of Toronto operates has been a site of human activity for 15,000 years. This land is the territory of the Huron-Wendat and Petun First Nations, the Seneca, and most recently, the Mississaugas of the Credit River. The territory was the subject of the Dish With One Spoon Wampum Belt Covenant, an agreement between the Iroquois Confederacy and the Ojibwe and all nations to peacefully share and care for the resources around the Great Lakes. Today, the meeting place of Toronto is still the home to many Indigenous people from across Turtle Island and we are grateful to have the opportunity to work in the community, on this territory. (From website guide Revised by the Elders Circle (Council of Aboriginal Initiatives) on November 6, 2014.)

I am pleased to report to you that we are at this moment in the process of developing what we hope will be a process or protocol dealing with such important acknowledgements. (The Mi’kmaq-Wolastoqiyik Centre (MWC), located on traditional territory of Wolastoqiyik at the University of New Brunswick Fredericton, provides a learning environment for Indigenous students to develop a strong cultural foundation as well as academic and professional skills, and offers opportunities for all UNB students to become familiar with Mi’kmaq and Wolastoqiyik histories, cultures, contributions, and treaty rights through principles of respect, sharing, harmony, acceptance and unity in diversity. MiWC promotes the professional growth and self-determination of First Nations through its programs, services, and research. Mount Allison University
Below we begin the proceedings, I would like to acknowledge, honor and pay respect to the traditional owners (all on their direction), of the land on which we meet. It is upon the ancestral lands of the Maliseet and Wolastoqiyik (Maliseet) peoples that Mount Allison University is built. As we share our own knowledge, teaching, learning, and research practices within the university, may we also pay respect to the knowledge embedded forever within the Aboriginal ownership of this country. Newfoundland and Labrador:

| Mik'maq/Innu/Inuit/Beothuk No Treaty | Memorial University of Newfoundland | The current land acknowledgement for the St. John's campus of Memorial University is: I (we) would like to respectfully acknowledge the territory in which we gather, as the ancestral homelands of the Beothuk and the island of Newfoundland as the ancestral homelands of the Mi'kmaq and Beothuk. I (we) would also like to recognize the Inuit of Nunatsiavut and NunatuKavut and the Innu of Nisiisini, and their ancestors, as the original people of Labrador. We strive for respectful partnerships with all the peoples of this province as we search for collective healing and true reconciliation and honour this beautiful land together. The land acknowledgment for the Grenfell Campus of Memorial University – located in Corner Brook, NL is: I (we) welcome you all to Grenfell Campus. (or whatever appropriate salutation fits). We acknowledge with respect the diverse histories and cultures of all the Mi'kmaw, Innu, and Inuit peoples of this province. (from October 2016 email) | http://www.mun.ca/aco/about/ |

Prince Edward Island:

| Mik'maq Peace and Friendship Treaties | University of Prince Edward Island | UPEI does not have an official protocol for acknowledging the Mi'kmaq territory we are in. We do this on an ad hoc basis i.e. Indigenous ceremonies and events, such as our annual Pow Wow on campus. It is, however, something we are working on.
